REAL HISTORY, USA 2000

ONCE AGAIN, REAL HISTORY COMES TO CINCINNATI, SEPTEMBER 22-24, 2000

Welcome aboard

An interesting mixture: author John Sack, ambassador Sir Nevile Henderson, statesman Franklin D. Roosevelt, author David Irving

David Irving's Real HiSTORY, USA (Cincinnati Sept 22 - 24, 2000)!

Like our hugely successful 1999 event, we are holding this in a luxury Cincinnati hotel - it's like renting an upscale lodge - with a fine pool and restaurants. We provide free transport to the airport and city sights.

Hear our thought-provoking experts on the latest trends in history, covering topics as vast as World War II and Winston Churchill, as diverse as Britain's pre-war ambassador in Berlin Sir Nevile Henderson, as controversial as the demolition of the world's leading Auschwitz expert Robert Van Pelt, and as delicate as the authenticity of the Shroud of Turin.

Be prepared for surprises. How hostile was FDR to the Jews? How much can we tell about the Holocaust from the British-decoded SS messages? British expert Alan Heath, who has spent eight years in Poland surveying the Nazi sites, reveals the surprises he has found.

Historian David Irving reports on the High Court lawsuit he fought single-handedly against the global enemies of Real History - a legal action still reverberating around the world, and on the upcoming history-making appeal. By popular request, historian John Sack ("Eye for an Eye") will deliver the keynote speech. And much more.

the full program of speakers and times will be sent to registered guests.

Space at some functions will be limited, so it is important to register yourself and all your guests early!

safety considerations limit our number aboard the boat to 260. Full appropriate refunds will be made in the event of disappointment.
